Spider haiku

Shadows haunt light
like a spider's memory of its last capture

Shadows haunt light
like the tremor of a web as the spider eats it

No shadows at night
but in the dusty web fragments of wings legs eyes

The spider eats
the shadow of her meal
as the sun begins to rise

Light as a shadow
a spider explores my tanned shoulder but for what?

I need to learn what spiders do when their shadows grow in the low sun

Shadows
wander across my vision like spider species on the move
