The Beholder

Allan Lake

Along the beach a fine rain that softly dampens my hair.
I walk towards sunset, feel pastel within till sun descends into sea.

Turning back –

    a dusk rainbow!
I would gesture to a passer-by,
utter an appreciative syllable, perhaps accrue reflected credit but with nobody nearby I feel a bit marooned while Nature simply absorbs my self-conscious little burst of enthusiasm.
