Looking for Marianne North*

John Charles Ryan (Southern Cross University, Australia)

this grotesque burl absorbed you, but obsession came easily, propelled you to Japan, Sicily, Borneo your portrait from Ceylon—a shawl-wrapped saint, cherubic aura and flushed cheeks framed by palm fronds

more restless and further flung you became after your father passed away

your love transposed to pitcher-plants, tree-ferns, bael fruits now the same dirt track you took from Pemberton jars me, corrugations made more extreme by four-wheel tyre tread than your trundling by horse-drawn wagon: easel, oils and implements of exile in tow to paint an aberration—a bearded gargoyle interrupting pure ascension your rendering is faithful to forest spirits and to banksias grasping with light-thirsty fingertips by midday, septa partition growth into gnomish faces, perfumed bark below and above shreds off in the sear peering up unexpectedly—Creation of Adam, Michelangelo in crevices, or, at least, seraphs and sprites cavorting you and I limber to the shaded moss-strewn side close our eyes cling to cool resilience, which is a karri which is a tree.

*Marianne North (1830–1890) was an English botanical illustrator who travelled to Southwest Australia in 1880.
