Commuters by Rose van Son

under the Windan Bridge tide draws east
pulls current between pillars cormorants
double strokes
prepare for landing
a boat changes course coordinates where pelicans once stood throats open to fishermen an ibis steps out
digs trenches
underfoot
gum leaves
set dams
flood river plain
seagulls
hide neck
dream ripples
in window dust
commuters close eyes
smear glass
pillars under bridge
bring them home
